Appointment of Honorary Visitors re. Effective Implementation of the Scheme of Free and Compulsory Primary Education.

ORDER No. ED 77 PMS 69, BANGALORE, DATED THE 26TH APRIL 1969
(VAISHAKHA 6, SAKA ERA 1891)

The Mysore State Compulsory Primary Education Act, 1961 provides for free and compulsory education in the Primary stage up to a particular level. Attendance Officers and Inspectors have been appointed for enforcing the provisions of the Act. Government are also considering the posting of additional supervisory staff. In addition to this, Government feels that the co-operation of the representatives of the public is most essential to ensure effective implementation of the Scheme,. Therefore, Government are pleased to appoint all M.Ps., M.L.As., M.L.Cs., the Presidents and Members of the Taluk Development Boards, Municipalities and Panchayats as Honorary Visitors of Primary Schools in the State. The Honorary visitors may visit any Primary School during working hours of the School and record their impressions in the visit book of the School with referrence to attendance of students, availability of teachers general, cleanliness, the working of midday meal scheme, discipline of stundents and staff, adequacy of accommodation and furniture and other allied matters. Extracts of the record in the visit book made by these Honorary Visitors should be forwarded to the District Educational Officer by the Head Master of the School. The District Educational Officer should examine the suggestions made by these Visitors and implement them as early as possible. The Director of Public Instruction in Mysore, Bangalore is requested to send up proposals to Government for a model visit book which should contain three parts—one to be retained with the visitor; another to be sent to the District Educational Officer and the third to be retained at the School.

By Order and in the name of the Governor of Mysore,

21 S. B. CHIKKAMATH,

Under Secretary to Government,
Education and Youth Welfare Department.
